

Session Notes

Session 31 - November 18th, 2023 - Day 27 & 28

Title: The Divine Spark

- After the intense meeting entailing the creation of the Cerulean Resistance, and after their next destination noted, they go and prepare for the trip.
- Some go to the shop and purchase what they have put on hold, some say goodbye to their families and some “recruit” some members of the resistance immediately.
- A young half elf intern named Ralnor Beifiel, was walking around the castle as he was shadowing the lawmaker to hopefully be one himself. As soon as he is spotted by Bellum, he is immediate to take action and join the resistance and help with an urgent mission to research what magical items that Qrand has and get back to him.
- When returning with unfortunate news of not having much to offer, the team make sure to take note of his loyalty and ask the queen, Kera, to give him an extra bump in his education as a wizard to help the cause and have more immediate help.
- Once the party take a rest, halfway through their travel to Wifcaster they begin to sleep and Wyrin begins to dream and the rest of the party fall into the same one.
- Aboccoba has collected all of the party so she could to give them all the knowledge she has as she believes they can be fully trusted.
- She talks about the Sihar, her Dragon and the defender from astral entities. She also guards the Minarian Planar Gates from those who are not considered chosen.
- She continues to explain that the Gates are locked by all except those who have a divine spark, the only way for a mortal to gain a divine spark is by playing a song with the baton of Aboccoba once its been fully powered with the Wild Magic of Minaria.
- Explains that the Dragonborn of Wifcaster follow Sihar as their god and are owners of a very rare Red Wild Magic Orb and recommend to go there and try to get the Dragonborn on their side and let the party use the Wild Magic Orb to further their quest.
- Warns the party that the other planes are no longer infiltrating Minaria but are preparing for a Planar War. When Aboccoba tried to reason with them she realized that the symbols of peace given to each of the Gods were corrupted by Hadaar.
- The party also ask about Penguin figuring out that his true last name is Lyonsbane. Also that the small spark of Hadaar placed inside him is at no threat to the party and is not causing them any trouble as of now.
- When they wake up they recall their dream to Tobias who was not in the dream and begin to think of which towns to call to and have them join the resistance.
- The party use Sending to contact their friends in Helmsfield, Basinhold, and Ular. They agree to join the resistance, they then use their Sending Stones and contact Kera to give her the good news.
- She explains that they only have a single wizard that can set up the teleportation circles, so to get them all working so it will take 3 days to connect Helmsfield, 2 days afterwards for Basinhold and then another 2 days for Ular.
- The party agree to this and are excited to see their old friends, and with that work behind them they happily look forward to see some old friends in Wifcaster.

Session 30 - October 22nd, 2023 - Day 26 & 27

Title: The Cerulean Resistance

- The party exhausted from the previous bought begin to plan their next move. They start by surveying the area and tie up the Queen, Future King, and Vizir to be safe.
- Next wake up the Queen with healing, once up she looks confused and scared asking what happened and where her friends are.
- After being reunited she explains that she blacked out and did not know what happened. She thanks the party profusely and offers them a luxurious stay in the castle.
- Kera explains that there will be a meeting with the Queen of Qrand tomorrow but asks that the party looks through the kingdom and that she is available for any questions.
- The party go to the magic shop to scout some items for the future running in to an old friend from Helmfield, Ramona Moonbirth who owns the shop.
- After some introductions to the new team members she analyzes Athoria as wells as learns more about it due to the Api giving her a full historical background.
- Also looking at new Earth Piercer, the Elemental Divider, sasys that its looking for another chosen to harnes Talos' strength, but currently is no ones owner.
- After asking Ramona to hold some magic items for the party the head to the bar to drink and eat but ultimately head back to the castle to sleep.
- On the way there Wyrin gets a Sending message from Antinua asking where she is and that she wants to talk, Wyrin lets her know where she is and the team head to rest.
- The next day, Ildra talks to Wyrin and says that Antinua is here to talk.
- Antigua says that she has been distraught since she heard about Eke, and asks if Wyrin wants to come home because she is not sure if she can lose another.
- Wyrin tells her that she is deep in saving the planes and wants to keep going. Hearing that Antinua says that the Circus has stopped and will stay here in Shesmont, and that she got a gift from a dream and that she has been waiting for the right moment to give it to her, in some clean, sfot white cloth unveils a rapier named the Dormant Requim.
- A little later the Queen and Princess of Qrand arrive in Shesmont. The party is led into a room with a long table and in lies Kera, Camus, Ildra, Ellis, and Elizabeth. Once the party arrive Ellis and Elizabeth begin to enchant the room to prevent any sort of scrying.
- Once done everyone discusses Hadaar and that they want to form a resistance, they name it the Cerulean Resistance. They ask the party to go around Minaria to proclaim the horrors of Hadaar, and in turn they grant the party full access to both Shesmont and Qrand and to those that join the resistance they would receive Better Trades for economic strength, access to Help, if they need assistance they can call for help and the resistance can send knights to help, and lastly if they are willing they will have a Wizard be sent to the town and have a Teleportation circle made that will be guarded.
- Then Ellis, princess of Qrand, annouces that they want to help the party by using her innate magical strength from her mother and her magical engineering.
- The Kera asks if they know anyone who they trust who can help as Knights, they tell them about some Genasi friends named Marble and Whistle.
- They say that they are likely to find them in Wifcaster and ask the party to head there.

Session 29 - September 23rd, 2023 - Day 26

Title: Greetings from beyond the Planes

- The party finally reach the Mountain side Kingdom of Shesmont, seeing the beautiful stonework that the ancestors of the people of the kingdom created.
- Party sees that the people around the town are living happy and are going about their lives, going to taverns, shops, kids running around a town that seems to have peace.
- Then they decided to go up directly to the Castle to meet with the queen.
- When arriving at the gates they are met by a human women directing the guards on their tasks for the day and guiding them on where to go.
- After getting her attention and explaining the reason for being there, she introduces herself as Ildra and takes the party to meet with the Queen.
- After arriving the Queen and King are talking to some guards, and when Ildra comes in she asks the guards to leave so they can discuss privately.
- The party explain to Kera, the queen, about the mysterious death of the king.
- After hearing the situation, Kera explains how shocked she is and what she did when meeting with the king and introducing him to the new Crimson One's religion.
- Then the party announces their concern about "The Crimson One" and says some of their encounters with them in the past.
- Kera asks to peer in the mind of Loreli to see these encounters and the being themselves, Loreli agrees and she beings to ponder through her mind.
- After some time seeing what Loreli brings to the surface she attempts to go deeper and Loreli does not resist the dive.
- After Kera does so the entire party sees a flash of red on Ildra, Kera, and the King. While Penguin feels that a piece of whatever is inside him seems to also influence the situation.
- Loreli hears a sudden telepathic scream and Kera seems to get taken and still in Loreli's mind she sees that same thin, malnourished, red body with no eyes but a large gaping mouth filled with teeth yell: "YOU HAVE SHOWN HER TOO MUCH!"
- A fight begins to take place with Loreli saving a mental stun that could have taken place, and the party beginning their assault.
- Kera moves irradically bringing them into a shadow copy of the same room they once were in but with a bright crimson star peering the room from atop the throne. Seeming to strengthen the Kings Weapon and having the necklace of Ildra shine bringing strength to her weapons.
- Even with the might of Astral Space and Blessed Weaponry, the party are barely able to knock the three of them unconscious with no casualties.
- Afterwards, Bellum dealing the final blow on Ildra telepathically hears a call from the necklace seeming to awaken, and seeing the work done by the party and Bellum askss to help them in their journey to defeat The Crimson One.
- After a long and hard fought battle the necklace introduces themselves as Apidingin and explains who they are, who Athoria is, and that their true enemy is known as Hadaar.

Session 28 - August 27th, 2023 - Day 25

Title: Spell Scroll Hijinks

- While sleeping the next day, Wyrin has a dream of Aboccoba warning her that the Red Star, in Astral Space, has gotten itself in the three planes and is haunting them. She thinks that this being is likely attempting to unleash chaos through all the planes and unlock the slumbering sins.
- They then meet up with the Veiled Mystics to try and glean more information on their investigation side of things and learn the spell was a divination type of spell.
- The party then chooses to go to jail and talk to some of the people who are incarcerated due to the magical ban in the kingdom.
- After some investigation and insight, they find a guy who is quite magically capable of divination magic and ask the party to have him hold the spell scroll so he can find out the exact spell that was used.
- They go to the library and find a lot of clerics who are working to discover the same spell as well. Although they have the spell scroll on a table while they are filtering through some books.
- Wyrin walks up carefully and sneakily grabs the spell scroll right under the clerics noses and the rest of party begin distracting them while Wyrin runs through the frantic guards.
- The party start talking to the guards about how they can help the investigation, which then moves to bumbling discussions, and trying to therapize these guys.
- Eventually Wyrin gets it to the Wizzard in the jail cell and he holds the spell scroll and can determine that the spell that was cast was "Contact other Plane."
- After learning that the spell Wyrin rushes back to place the scroll back with a good disguise as a guard, and the party leave with their new information in toe.
- Then Tobias meets with Queen and realizes that the scroll work will be done soon.
- After that they began to sleep to make their way to Shesmont, they wake to the streets being flood with the innate magical people of Qrand.
- When they wake up they make their way to obtain their new cart, they make their way by the Greedmial family. The daughter then thanks the party, nottcing Wyrin.
- When she takes a closer look at Wyrin she then runs inside to grab her parents. Wyrin begins to panic and explains to the party that this is her true family and she goes invisible.
- When she comes out the party begin to berate the parents and then make them feel ashamed for what they did and then when they begin to leave Bellum leaves a small gift for them with a burning tree in their yard.
- The party reach the cart and begin to make their way to Shesmont with a fight with some Beholderkin in their way. Striking them down they continue forward to their only lead on the mysterious death of the king of Qrand.

Session 27 - July 2nd, 2023 - Day 24

Title: A New Cart and the Weird Feelings of Qrand

- After waking the next day, Loreli sneaked away from the party at dawn to go to the cleric to ask about her possible pregnancy. With the approval for some magic for this task, the cleric was able to reply with yes and two twin boys. With their estimate of birth being around 30 days for the weird circumstances.
- Later on, the party talked with Tobias' family about the current events to no avail.
- They then went to the partnered company's house with many party members staying outside. Loreli and Penguin outside with Penguin being a little confused with why. Wyrin also stayed out, being super pale and physically shaking.
- After learning more about the situation of the town they discussed more with the residents around the Drunken Dragon learning about hooded figures that come in drink and leave every night.
- Bellum also talked with some of the workers from the Gleaming Cave. Asked to see if there was some new or suspicious activity going on within the miners guild.
- After talking with the locals and waiting for the end of the day when they can talk to these hooded figures and get a response from the miners they decided to sell their old cart and ask for a new one and get new horses.
- Waiting for dusk the miners return saying nothing more than the miners from Shesmont, the neighboring Kingdom, are under a new religion and that everyone is fine.
- Then waiting in the bar for the Hooded Figures to show up, they appear when they were suspected. Penguin and Tobias walked up to them and after asking who they were without pushing anything, they only took notice of Penguin for some reason.
- After some discussion they ask Penguin to follow them to their home, and after Bellum sets some mind links he follows them, with Bellum sneaking behind.
- They eventually lead him to one of the shut-down magical shops of Qrand, due to the current ban of magic for the majority of the town. They ask about how he could maybe talk to the Queen about the ban and how it is hurting them and some of their incarcerated family members due to them not getting any money for food.
- When asked why they only talked to Penguin, they sensed an internal source of magic and with Tobias, they did not.
- After further discussion and pleas from the citizens, Penguin leaves and Bellum sneaks inside to further follow them and finds that after the conversation and after a little bit of time they went to sleep.

Session 26 - June 25th, 2023 - Day 21, 22 & 23

Title: The Magical Ban in Qrand

- Before the party leaves Penguin pulls Loreli aside and tells her of the dream and strength that came to him last night, and how he feels different and a little off.
- Beginning their travel they meet with Finjin, the party discusses their business and tells Finjin to go to Ular and meet up with their magical expert to find some new items to sell.
- Continuing their journey the next day they come across a magical tower of mist that appears out of nowhere. After investigating they discover another Blue Wild Magic Orb and combine the others they have and can create a Orange Wild Magic Orb.
- Then the night before making it to Qrand, they come across an Elven woman who is running from the guards, the party keeps her hidden.
- When the guards, leave the party to learn of the somber mood and situation in Qrand, where the Queen lost her King by some unknown magical means. In her grief, she banned all use of unmonitored magic uses to get to the bottom of this assassination.
- When arriving in town the party covers up all their magical equipment, and the guards let them know they can have their magical items out but any use that was not approved will have them arrested.
- They immediately go towards a church, with Tobias leading the way where they talk with the Cleric to Abocaba, and they discuss more about the kingdom's situation.
- Loreli asks the Cleric about pregnancy in a confession booth and the Cleric replies by asking for permission to have her look more closely.
- Eventually using both Tobias' status in the town and Kelnora's royal background they gain an immediate audience with the queen, once they arrive Kelnora uses her magic, and notices no evil from the queen but some sort of evil that is new from inside Penguin.
- The queen then casts a Zone of Truth on the party to see if they are telling the truth about wanting to help her with the investigation, which Penguin for some reason resists and is asked why he resists and he can only reply with "I do not know what happened"
- After some thought the queen gives the party access to help with the investigation, and the party learns about the current state of the crime scene.
- The King was the last scene by the guards outside his study, going in to investigate something to better the future of Qrand bringing with him some books and a spell scroll. After some time the guards begin to hear gibberish, the language which can only be assumed of someone losing their mind. When they investigate the books, there is a list of many different gods and the spell scroll is one of Divination magic.
- The party also learns that the neighboring kingdom of Shesmont came by recently and that the Queen of Shesmont and the King had a private meeting.
- After learning all about what they know so far they are given a band that allows the use of their magic and approval from the queen to do so.

Session 25 - June 11th, 2023 - Day 19, 20 & 21

Title: The Smoke Has Cleared

- After collecting the equipment that was scattered on the temple floor they took Wolfe's ripped body and left the temple.
- As they were leaving, The Hidden Fang met them at the entrance of the temple. She asks in a concerned way how it all went already seeing the faces of everyone.
- She took them all back to town, and then a few of the party members went into the forest a bit and nicely buried the body and laid the Fanged Armor on top.
- The next day, the party was already in disarray, Some of the party members went to the bar to get food for the rest of them spotting a huge new man in the corner who was eerily similar looking to Wolfe.
- Still in shock, they move back to the party resting thinking that it's just the shock of death. However, they are still intrigued and decided to go back to take another look.
- They then meet a tall man looking around for a man named Wolfe, Eventually the party figures out that this man is Wolfe's younger brother named Tobias.
- Some of the party stick with him and give him the unfortunate news in the bar.
- While there they hear a voice familiar to them in a corner of the room saying "I can't believe that this Bellum character got cold feet for our fight what a bitch!"
- Hearing that Loreli goes over and intimidates the Pit Fighter Smoke to tell all the people around him the truth, and he refuses and a brawl ensues leading to his tongue being cut.
- After the fight, a random member of the Laughing Knives comes up to the party leaving the bar saying that they want to see a Pit fight of Bellum and Smoke to the death.
- After feeling a need to prove himself, Bellum accepts the fight and prepares for later.
- While waiting for the Pit to come alive, Tobias is given the Elemental Divider and the Shards of Athoria to see what will happen. Tobias can hold the Elemental Divider but not use it as a normal weapon, and when holding the Shards Tobias and the members of the party around him hear the word in a voice that sounds far away "More."
- Once the time of the Pit is ready, Bellum and Smoke are set to fight to the death.
- The fight finishes in two rounds with each side giving a ton of damage on each side, but ultimately Bellum uses his Ring of Spell Storing to Thunder Step behind them and kills Smoke with that teleportation, the crowd going wild off the speedy fight.
- The party then takes another rest, and while attempting to sleep they see another shower of red coming from the night sky similar to the events 120 years ago.
- Waking up the party prepares to leave off to the next town of Qrand saying goodbye to their new friends of the Laughing Knives with Bellum having willingly been branded.
- They take their horses and carts and take off for the journey ahead of them.

Session 24 - June 4th, 2023 - Day 19

Title: Possession, Loss, and Death

- Once entering the Hidden Temple, they notice the story written along the walls of the temple, explaining the origin of Zehir.
- The party continues to the room Wolfe sees a golden rod protruding from the center, Wolfe immediately pulls the rod and it releases serpentine-like spirits.
- Once they are defeated the party realizes the rod is a part of a key that will unlock the door to the north of them. They then continue through one of the 4 hallways.
- They then go around seeing what the temple holds and finding golden fangs that fit perfectly into the rod until they make the key.
- In the last room, holding the final fang, they get the jump on the enemies in there and annihilate them without nearly a chance to counterattack.
- Once they make the key they unlock the door leading to a room with a stone statue with six snake heads on top, and they enter a few moments of silence until Casey holds their head in pain.
- Eventually calming down then begins to pray to the statue and then teleports to the corner of the room, and then Eke appears with a snap of Casey's fingers.
- Eke then yells at the party and Wyrin about how they ruined her life and then reveals a Blue Orb of Wild Magic and then a Globe of Magic goes around her and then the statue begins to come to life and attack the party.
- The statue attacks with a powerful force ripping apart the party, Bellum's arm is ripped from his torso, and Wolfe's head and Arms are ripped from the torso. The party barely ends the statue's life.
- After the statue falls Eke also falls off the second floor and the party pierces her with 354 points of damage, sending her body in seven pieces. After a second, a bolt of red lightning from the piece holding the heart goes out and reattaches the body.
- Once the body is reunited Eke's body goes into a Dark Crimson Red, her horns grow into a chaotic order, and her eyes become these piercing red eyes with the stars of the astral sea.
- She then teleports in front of Penguin and says "I like you, you fit my style" then seems to grab his head and hold it there for a second and then laugh and teleport back.
- This new being, then says I need a new army. It snaps its fingers and Rean, Desparia, and Hydrangea are being held by red lightning, and then Rean's heart is ripped from her body and then she falls dead, Then the heart pulses with Red lightning and pierces the other two. Athoria then goes out and attempts to hit the heart then shatters into two pieces and then they transform into new beings and then the being tells the party see you soon and teleports away.

Session 23 - May 21st, 2023 - Day 19

Title: Uncovering the Hidden Temple

- After waking from a night of fighting, they notice that the Laughing Knives around them seem a lot more friendly to them and more open to them being there.
- They make their way over to the Trade Center and find the Red Tiefling beginning to start for the day.
- Once the party makes their way over there Tiefling explains that the fight last night was a lot of fun, then begins to show the party what he has. After seeing a few interesting items he hands this stick that he has no power but he can sense some sort of magical abilities in it.
- Loreli explains that it is a powerful magical stick and can only be wielded by one of nature. Once saying this the Tiefling begins to want around 200 gp for the item, but later says he will trade it for the magical item that Smoke has been flaunting around.
- The party makes their way around town to eventually hear this Panther-like Tabaxi going around saying "Look at this, aren't I so cool" After Wyrin makes a close look at the fighter she discovers that he is a Monk, With that knowledge Bellum asks him to fight for it tonight. I agree after putting up 50gp for the loss, believing that Bellum is easy prey.
- Once the plan is made the party split up, and everyone but Bellum and Kelnora go to the Bar and find Kura, the caretaker of the Zehir Temple.
- They talk to him about Zehir and learn about a meeting tonight around midnight to which solely Yuan-Ti is invited.
- With Bellum and Kelnora looking around the time they eventually find drag marks from the statue, They then excavate near the tower and see a spiraling staircase going down.
- They are then found out by a large Yuan-Ti with scimitars in hand speaking Draconic asking "whos there."
- They are then caught but fight against the snake and very nearly escape killing the monster. They then run back to the Ular and explain what they saw to the rest of the party in private.
- Afterward, Bellum goes up to the base of operations of the Laughing Knives and explains the current situation to the Hidden Fang and Casey, Both agree to help the party and the Hidden Fang sends Casey with the group to go learn more about the hidden area in the Zehir Temple, they make their way down passing the corpse of the Yuan-Ti they killed before and make their way into the true temple.

Session 22 - April 30th, 2023 - Day 18

Title: The Pit

- After being asked their reason for arrival Bellum takes the initiative to talk with this woman while asking her questions in Thieves Cant.
- After seeing that the party is no threat to them they accept them and begin to show the party around. The woman calls herself the "Hidden Fang" and is their guide for the town. She explains that these people are the Laughing Knives and are a Robin Hood-like clan.
- She guides them to the Resting Area, Trading Center, and Blacksmith. When arriving at the Pit she explains that this area is the main history of the Laughing Knives. If you want anything from anyone then you would need to challenge them to a duel offer something of equal value and then fight for the item. They have fought every night and have a big one tonight.
- When she travels to the base, she walks in and the party sees some members and a Yuan-Ti named Casy at the edge of a table over a map explaining which town is next on their list.
- Bellum asks the Hidden Fang to talk with her and her most trustworthy friends in private, as they explain their entire situation and reason for being here. Talking about the Snakes that kidnapped Eke and the Magical Orbs.
- She explains that she knows nothing of anything that was discussed but that she would let the party know if anything comes up, she asks Casey if she knows anything to which he replies the same thing but explains that he worships Zehir.
- The party then moves to the Pit preparing to see the fight where they meet a Wood Elf alone in the corner with not much to his name but a Moneky Fmailiar by his side, they talk with him for a while until they are asked if they would like to bet on the fight tonight.
- After betting, they take their seats to find two competitors fighting one more skinny and speedy while the other is big and strong. They fight and in a heated match ends with a swift kill.
- The Pit is then open to anyone, Wolfe then throws his mighty Trident into the ring declaring battle, to which everyone becomes shy and intimidated by him. This then leads the party to want to fight each other, and after being put into random teams they begin.
- The fight goes on for some time as they pull out all the stops in a nonlethal fashion. After some time Wolfe, Penguin, and Kelnora win the battle and the entire party goes for some drinks to then sleep for the night.

Session 21 - April 23rd, 2023 - Day 17 & 18

Title: New Friends and Places

- Continuing on their travels the party comes across a blue creature being shot from the clouds down into Minaria, with some pegasi and troopers following suit.
- After seeing the creature being attacked and the troops going back into the clouds the party rushed to see what had happened to the creature now grey.
- Revving her with some healing magic the party asks her what had happened to her, This creature is a Brownie named Rean who was against the upcoming war that Exynn is preparing, as they are now drafting bodied people into the army.
- She says her parents and some friends were trying to fight this and that she got caught in some attempt to sabotage and was sent down here to be executed for going against Pelor's will.
- After explaining this the party invited her to the cart and will follow them into the next town and for the foreseeable future.
- The party questions more about Rean's fighting capabilities to which she replies that her emotions are the strength of her powers She asks a party member to throw a rock so she can demonstrate. When thrown, she throws out her hand, and after a second, red lightning chains out from her arm and shoots the rock.
- The party recalling the past to this magic tells her to be careful for this magic can be unstable.
- After camping through the next day and traveling more getting closer to Ular village they meet up with a merchant known as Finjin and his Magic. The party intrigued by his wares purchases some magical items and continues with their journey.
- They then come across a sign that no one can read other than Bellum who recognizes as Thieves Cant with the arrows pointing to the right saying Qrand and the other pointing to the nearby dense forest saying Ular.
- Once they travel to the forest they come across another sign that separates the path saying Ular and Zehir's Temple. They first rush towards the temple to find out if Eke is there.
- They meet with a Human named Kura who is the guardian of this temple, After looking around the outside of the temple while Wolfe asks about Zehir's teachings they find nothing, then When Wolfe asks him to possibly convert to Talos he asks them to leave and begins to rush to his home.
- Bellum sneakily follows suit while Loreli attempts to follow but is caught multiple times in pursuit saying that she has a UTI and needs to use the restroom in the forest while swinging from tree to tree.
- After seeing her over and over asks her to stop following him as Loreli heads back with the group while Bellum stealthily watches him rush into his house and close the shutters.
- Once the full party meets up they continue into the town where they realize they have a few hooded figures following them into the town, Once they reach the entrance they are surrounded and a large lizard creature that runs up with women jumping from the top of it asking who they are and why are they here.

Session 20 - April 11th, 2023 - Day 15-16

Title: Running Out of Town

- Once hear that Eke has gone missing the party begins to investigate, looking at the scene and using magic, and with low rolls, unfortunately, don't find as much as they want.
- They found that there were no footprints at the scene, whatever took Eke were not Aberrations, Celestials, Dragons, Elementals, Fey, Fiends, Humanoids, or Undead. A creature that no one has encountered before Milo Silvereyes, one of the members of the Flatcoat Circus, said that he saw a pair of yellow reptilian-like eyes.
- After getting all their information they go to Arveene who is using her new focus, given from the party, and can locate her moving quickly North of town.
- The party is unsure if they want to follow through, seeing the absolute fear on Antinua's face decide to move on early the next morning.
- When they begin to sleep to prepare for the next day, Wyrin gets a dream of the god of the Minarian plane, Aboccoba. She explains that she is no longer able to reach her plane and tells her to stop her left hand Zehir from collecting the Orbs and starting another planar war.
- Waking up they begin to leave, the town presents them with a cart for their travel after losing their own when coming to town. They are given a White Horse and a Blue Horse which the party names Bob and Bib, and the party is off.
- Moving forward on their way they see a web that begins to form a bit off the path where members of Verrona come out and begin to fight the party.
- After taking them on they loot them and continue to move on for the night.

Session 19 - April 4th, 2023 - Day 14 - 15

Title: The Low Morale Circus

- The party then decides to attempt another Elemental bout to gain more of their essence.
- Choosing the Earth element they walk in after a difficult long rest ready to fight. The Guardian unveils her scimitars, summons her helpers, and tells the party "With that weapon in your hands I can go all out!" as she begins to charge.
- The party, thinking about its foe, discerns its vulnerabilities and uses them against them. Wyrin runs in front of all the enemies and Thunderwaves them doing massive damage across the board and wiping out the Mephits immediately before they even had a chance to attack.
- After that powerful strike, the elemental in a blind rage immediately attacks Wyrin knocking her unconscious just as fast.
- Then Wolfe ruins up to defend Wyrin's body from the elemental. The guardian not aiming to kill the party attacks Wolfe and is here to test the party.
- Hydra, seeing her fellow teammate fall in battle, grabs her Fallen Moonlight Greatsword and attacks the Elemental in retaliation, and annihilates them.
- After winning the bout they gain more essence and then they return to the Inn and call it for the night. Loerli contacts her mother about her adventure, Wyrin and Kelnora talk to Bellum, previously known as Kugrak changing names due to the old name being their slave name, about adding spells to their new ring of spell storing.
- The next morning they are contacted by the Knights of the Town Collin asks for their audience. The party goes and is told about what they found in their investigation and grants the party a financial reward from Collin's reserve.
- They then go to the Circus which is still here after being told they were going to leave 2 days prior. Antinua tells the party that they were asked to perform another Circus act for free to raise the morale of the city.
- Afterward, they go to the Magical Merchant and Blacksmith to use their new gold for new items as well as get the air elemental leg prosthetic to be made, which will be available the next day for pick up.
- The party split up there to have Hydrangea and Desparia go to the Nishi Waters as they are intrigued by the unknown that the Waters provides.
- Later that night the party reunites and join the circus and have a really fun experience similar to their first encounter. However, later when Eke and Antinua do their final dance and song, Eke does not show up and Adrik announces that she has gone missing!

Session 18 - March 25th, 2023 - Day 13

Title: Talos the God of the Elementals

- The party plays some rounds of gambling to possibly win some more money, after some wins and some losses they decide to leave early for the docks to not be late again.
- Due to the party arriving early, they seem to have some fun alongside the water where some dive for treasure while others look around and the rest try to improve their cooking skills with some newfound powers they have acquired.
- Not long after the sun sets one of the priests from the Church of Talos joins them by the lakeside and asks them to prepare to travel to the cavern.
- Once they arrive they walk through some dark areas only lit by a torch and find themselves on a big stone wall with some text on it. The priest explains that they have never been able to bring mercenaries past this point but wonder if this party is an exception.
- Once Wolfe grabs the stone handle to the wall, colors of red, orange, blue, and green come out and make cracks in the stone that then have the door slide open by his hand.
- The entrance is a hallway only lit by torches the party brings beautiful marble flooring and walls surrounding the party, once they reach a room it begins to light up in a calm and warm white light. Then in the middle are four pillars from which 3 elemental mephitis appear and begin to attack the party.
- Once they have been defeated they then see that these four smaller pillars in the center of the room have some symbolism on them, and after a while present each pillar with their respective element and larger doors in this room open when the pillar is presented with the correct element.
- Once they open all the rooms they decide to go into the air room first after taking a short rest in the center room, This is where they meet Aura the Wind Guardian who challenges the party to see if the party is prepared for the future and if Wolfe is worthy of the weapon he carries.
- The Guardian summons an elemental and some mephitis and the battle begins with him creating a big tornado of slashes from his great curved sword striking the party with tons of damage.
- They retaliate by attacking the actual elemental and slowly withering him to nothing. The party is slowly collapsing one by one but eventually, after a long-fought battle, they can complete the test with no real damage caused to the party.
- They are rewarded with some gold, a new ring of spell storing, an air elemental essence, and an upgrade to Earth Piercer the Elemental Divider.

Session 17 - March 21st, 2023 - Days 12 and 13

Title: Rebounding

- The party, recovering from the previous long bout, begins to tie up the Changeling to begin the interrogation.
- They begin asking the changeling where Loreli is and why they did what they did.
- After asking and getting no meaningful response due to her pride the party begins getting annoyed and threatens her life with no real response still.
- After some more intimidation and threats, her pridefulness begins to crack and show as she explains that she needs her hands to bring Loreli back.
- After the party surrounds all around her ready to pounce if she escapes, she uses her hands and brings her back from a summoned light, with the sequester spell.
- After getting Loreli back, they kill the changeling. Once they do that she begins to turn to ash with little red sparks coming from the ash.
- They then bring the Lawmaker out on the bridge where the leader of the guards is delegating work to the others.
- After letting them know of the situation they take Colin to his house where they rest there for the night.
- Once they awaken, they go to the Town Hall where they are asked about what happened the night before, detailing how all the prisoners were let loose and about the Changeling and her shadow.
- Once afterward they go to the bar to drink and prepare for the job they got from the Church going to the Elemental Cavern.

Session 16 - March 7th, 2023 - Day 12

Title: Jailbreak

- The party walks up the spiral staircase they found at the end of the Justice Bringer Labyrinth, and finds themselves in an abandoned jail room with no other exits.
- Looking around they find that the only jail cell in use is being held by the Lawmaker of Basinhold, Colin Tallstag, who looks malnourished.
- The party saves him and he tells them that those who captured them never went through the spiral staircase the party takes some time and discovers that one of the walls feels like some gelatinous substance.
- When walking through there is another hidden staircase leading up to a working jail cell of Basinhold where the party decides to carefully gauge their surroundings.
- After getting out of the cell they travel to the end of the long corridor where they find a door leading to a middle room where there are 5 guards waiting on the other side.
- The party decides to take the incarcerated and free them by making a hole in the side of the wall and tie ropes leading down to the river and setting them free as a distraction for the guards.
- Once those who wanted to leave go, the guards are no longer there and the party is able to make it to the Courtroom where they find Colin Tallstag in the center of the room standing there alone talking to himself.
- The party, to their knowledge, sneak around him to surround him on his blindsides, but when a psychic dagger is thrown his way it is blocked by his shadow, as he slowly turns around.
- Colin asks to have a conversation with the party first but they decline his offer and began attacking. This is when Colin's skin began to morph along with their voice and transformed into a changeling and their shadow came apart them into a form of their own.
- This fight was made in a field of dark surrounding the fighting area making it difficult for the party to see them as they came around the party's supernatural instincts kicked in and even though they could not see them they were able to dodge their attacks consistently.
- Wyrin in the center of the room used attacks of sound that did not need sight to hurt the Shadowy figure, the team tossing their weapons nailing hits again and again. The fight nearing its close the changeling left out one large blast of cold and had half the party fall but with other members, standing was able to knock the changeling unconscious, and when the shadowy figure fell he dissolved in the light.

Session 15 - February 28th, 2023 - Day 12

Title: An Eye for an Eye

- The party, running after Lorelei, finds themselves on the bridge leading to the castle. They then decide to wait for Lorelei's direction with the psychic link the Kug placed on her earlier in the night.
- After waiting a little time Kug hears a slight call for help and then a sudden silence and they find that the connection is gone. They then decide that it is time to run in.
- The party investigates around the bridge where they find an indent in the wall that seems to perfectly fit the Justice Bringer Medallion they hold. Once they place that in there the wall begins to show a slight door crease and the door opens leading to a spiraling staircase leading downwards.
- Once they get down into the dungeon they find that this place is a labyrinth with multiple hallways and water covering the entirety of the floor due to it being under the river.
- The party moving forward has Wolfe tracing the walls with a knife that is tracking their progress to not lose their way.
- They begin to make their way through the labyrinth coming into contact with 2 Minotaurs, and they begin to fight, with Wyrin starting with a Silence spell to make sure reinforcements don't come.
- This fight was landing critical hits on both sides with one critical slash coming straight toward Hydrangea this attack hit right in the face and knocks her conscience and has her left eye slashed, making it unusable.
- They win the fight and then take refugees for a minute healing back up and after a little, more traversal make it to the end of the labyrinth seeing a spiral staircase leading upward.

Session 14 - January 31st, 2023 - Day 12

Title: The Murder Trial

- The party wakes up for the day and waits around until the same Guards as yesterday comes with a horse wagon to take them to the Town Hall, stopping them along the way with asking what happened at certain points like the outskirts of town where the bodies were found and the end of the bridge where the previous wagon is found destroyed.
- Afterward are taken inside the beautifully done castle and led into a Court Room, but with the dangers they know are lurking about they remain vigilant.
- Once a minute or two rolls by the Lawmaker enters the Court Room and the trial begins.
- They bring up Wolfe, Wyrin, Kug, Desparia, and Hydragea to ask them questions learning a few things about them, their journey, and their motives. But most importantly who the Justice Bringers are to them.
- Afterward, they decide on what to do next either following up on the Elemental Quest or attempting to go around town and learn more about the Justice Bringers and their grip on the city's underside.
- They choose to go to the church and set up a date tomorrow morning at 8 am to be taken to their cavern which no mercenaries in the past have even been able to enter.
- Later they go to the biggest bar all of the party have ever seen in their lives, getting food, drinking, and gambling all happening at once.
- They go to the gambling area where they meet the casino dealers who all seem to be the same person and confuse the party they also meet a rich older gentleman and attempt to pry knowledge off of him.
- Loreli and Desparia attempt to seduce him to get information. He tests their luck by playing a few rounds next to them seeing that Desparia is not as fortunate he demands she leaves and Loreli stay. When they take a table he falls flat on his face due to his shoelaces being tied busting his lip, no one knowing who did it.
- At the table, the gentleman explains who he is, his name is Redd and him being a "high-ranking" city guard. Loreli continues to seduce him to gain the information she tells him her story saying that she despises her mother for making her look the way she is, and he promptly tells her about a way to get to her mother and finish her off.
- He grabs her hand and takes her and tells her to follow him, Kug then uses his telepathy to follow her with the party until they reach the bridge. He asks her to stay put and goes under the bridge then grabs her again and begins to take her under where she sees a door-like hole in the underside of the bridge.

Session 13 - January 17th, 2023 - Day 11

Title: Recovery and New Magic

- The party awakens from a long night of sleeping and rest from their arduous adventure the night before.
- After they leave the Inn to go look out around the shops they are stopped by a group of guards asking them what happened the night before. After telling them what they know they asked if they can escort them to the Town Hall tomorrow for a trial to act as witnesses, to which they agreed.
- The party then split up and goes around town looking for individual items, Wolfe and Desparia look for a prosthetic leg to replace her old one that was lost in the fight, Loreli and Penguin go find special jewelry to wear, and everyone else goes to the Magic Item shop.
- When arriving they are met with a young and energetic boy named Tanzim who is the owner's son and thinks that the team looks really cool and strong and shows them the magic items they hold, one of which catches the eye of Wyrin, the Dalla Melodica, for which she purchases. When Desparia arrives later the owner tells her about an essence of an elemental and that he could make a magical prosthetic for her and to go to the Church if they want a chance of getting one.
- They meet the owner of the magical shop owner and show them the orb of magic he asks them if they have seen another of a similar kind and to put them together, he wishes to be there when they agree to do it later that night.
- The rest of the party after their shopping meet up and go to the blacksmith where Wolfe requests an upgrade to his Armor and Hydrangea sees a new weapon, the Fallen Moonlight Sword that powers up the more souls it collects. She purchases it with happiness and the rest of the party meets up to find Arveene and combine the orbs together.
- Once they find her they slowly push the orbs together causing them to begin to swirl more and more like magnets barely causing them to merge but then suddenly with a large wave of force the 2 Blue Wild Magic Orbs are gone and all that is left is a single Green Wild Magic Orb.
- Afterward, they take their long day of walking and purchasing and go to rest for the night.

Session 12 - January 10th, 2023 - Day 10

Title: Escape

- The party begins to fight back the guards, with some complications. Once the three are down more begin to come.
- The party then quickly kills them before they have a chance to run away and get more.
- Afterward, Kug begins another telekinetic link to Wolfe and Penguin using his Psychic Whispers.
- Cleaning up the scene they begin to dispatch a plan to continue to investigate. After some time they decide to send Wolfe and Penguin out to go get Wyrin who still lies deep in the Private Traveler Inn knowing not what is going on, while the rest remain underneath the tarp and Myev is in a Major Illusion on the side hidden from the rest.
- As they are running out of town a group of guards, commanders, and Minotaurs begin to chase after them. As Wolfe and Penguin breach the edge of town after running down the forest path, the group reaches the town but stays in the shadows and decides to head back to the Castle.
- As the group makes their way back they check underneath the cart's tarp again, this time the majority attempt to deceive them to just take them in, ultimately failing and some getting under the Hold Person spell again although something is different.
- Desparia with her anger of the Justice Bringers filling inside her after following the group's plan she's had enough. She grips her sword hard and critically strikes the commander she sees in front of her causing the whole team to follow in her footsteps, but not being at full strength this may be a difficulty so they all choose to make their escape.
- The fight then starts with many blows knocking some unconscious but gaining consciousness again.
- Then Myev uses her powers learned from the circus to cause smoke to appear from underneath and around the cart to make it easier for the party to stealthily escape.
- The enemy group focuses their attacks on Desparia but she, in a state of rage, is defending the attacks, but the sword she wields, Athoria, is somehow moving on its own and helping to defend her.
- Each member one by one break free of the Hold Person and then individually beings to run away. As the whole party makes their way out Desparia is the last to run, as she runs away she gets knocked out by a sword slash that also slashes her leg off from the frustrations of the commanders attempting to attack her previously with no avail.
- The party makes an effort to help and ends up barely getting away with the help of 2 guards halting the minotaur for a turn before getting killed so the party can make their way back to town, stop the leg from bleeding, and make their way to a bed to sleep for the night.

Session 11 - January 3rd, 2023 - Day 10

Title: Entering Basinhold Undercover

- The party awakens from a sleep that felt like months. They then decide on what the next move should be to ensure they can figure out what Justice Bringers are in the town ahead.
- They decided to move ahead about an hour in front of the Tiefling Family, Flatcoat Circus, and Bethany to not be connected with them upon arrival. They also have Myev from the Circus tag along with them due to her magical power.
- After leaving they come across a Traveling Merchant, they get a Map of Minaria, a book of fairy tales, an Awakened Shrub, and a Flying Snake.
- Once they arrive outside of Basinhold, Wyrin then Disguises themselves as the man they met on the way there who had the Tiefling family hostage. With the rest of the party in the cart.
- After being let into the town Wyrin rides the cart around town until noticing a figure whos on the top of a building. The two of them make eye contact and then follow the figure to the outskirts of town.
- Once they arrive at the destination the figure hops down the building, then looks at Wyrin and gives her 5 gold, and asks her to go to the nearby Inn. Wyrin leaves but is Held with a spell and is asked why there are more people than what was requested. With a convincing lie, the figure believes them and leaves.
- After around 20 min of traveling the rest of the party finds themselves heading up the path to the main castle next to a small alcove, being left in the cart alone for quite some time and they then derive a plan to have the few that were unseen, Wolfe and Penguin being in a barrel, and Myev holding onto the bottom of the cart, to go get Wyrin and come back.
- As those party members begin to leave Wolfe stumbles out of the cart with the barrel as well causing a large amount of noise. Penguin and Myev hide behind a major image and Wolfe runs down the empty path. The party in the cart is then caught.
- Those in the cart then fail to deceive them of all being asleep, half the party being put into a Hold Person the rest of the party needs to act quickly to save those being paralyzed.

Session 10 - November 15th, 2022 - Day 8 and 9

Title: The Journey to Basinhold

- The party awakening from their nice meal with their newfound adventurers they get some Boffee to wake up early in the day to complete the last few things they need before leaving Helmfield.
- They go around and say goodbye to their friends hoping to meet them again along the road.
- Desparia then requests that Bethany follows along with her journey and she agrees to complete the new party of adventurers and have the Order of the Orb members grow.
- They then begin their journey first seeing a very rare occurrence in the weather known as "Fey Weather" with pink bubbles covering the sky and drizzling on the party.
- They were then attacked by 2 Red Wyverns who they swiftly took down.
- The next afternoon they come across an older gentleman driving a tarped wagon who notices the Tieflings in the party and begins to dash past them.
- The party noticed that he had a shiny new medallion in his pocket and some see that there are tied-up tieflings in the back of this covered wagon.
- Swiftly they take action, Honk uses her immovable rod to halt the cart and the rest of the party split up from saving those behind the cart and dealing with the driver.
- The family is saved from being tied up and captured, nearly being brought up as slaves, while the other gentlemen are not so lucky.
- Round 1 of the interrogation shows that he is under a great frightening spell causing him to not want to spill any details, which causes the beginning interrogation to fail.
- After an hour they attempt again by knocking him out and bringing him back to life with Loreli's power, Honk causing him to be frightened of her, Loreli, and Desparia.
- He explains what he knows, coming from a nearby city, Payburn, he was ordered to deliver this family to Basinhold and await further instructions. He got all this information from the man in black.
- After gaining this information, Desparia amputates his arms and legs and covers him up, and places him on the side of the road. But without learning his name what is their next move when they arrive in Basinhold the next day?

Session 9 - November 8th, 2022 - Day 6 and 7

Title: The Flatcoat Circus Comes to Town

- Once the fight ended, the party, exhausted from their recent venture, decide to go and take a rest even though it was early evening due to their lack of strength remaining for the day.
- Waking up the next morning, the party decides to the Aroma Pig and eat a nice full meal as a reward for their big fight.
- Afterward, the party split and go about so personal activities before all meeting back up later at the bar.
- After some time Honk decides to leave the bar and go toward the Circus tent, as she leaves she is hunted down by a great Pteranodon that is diving from circling the town. She then begins to be licked all over by eh great beast as this is her old pet and friend Floop who then picks her up and flies her over to the circus tent where she meets her mom.
- The party then asks her if they can tag along and adventure to the next town over with them, to which Antinua agrees.
- The party then begins to follow suit seeing what just happened, eventually reaching them and meeting up with the whole Circus. Learning Honk's name is Wyrin and that she is from this Circus.
- Next, the party then goes to the town where they, plus some visitors, are eating, drinking, and playing some games. They see a bunch of new faces crowding around the games so they go play.
- Afterward, the party then goes towards the main event buying some fun magical candies and drinks with some funny effects.
- Then the main event begins, and with that, the start presents with a Magical Pie Eating contest. Some wacky effects took place and one had Loreli magically teleported away but is then retrieved, with Wolfe winning the whole contest.
- After the whole Circus ends, the party then goes around by saying goodbye. One of them was Loreli to Penguin, but Loreli asks if he can tag along with them, to which he firstly disagrees but after then pouring her heart out to him he agrees to find who or what happened to his brother and end him.
- After that, she brings him back to the party where they then eat the Perfect Blueberry pie they were awarded for winning the contest earlier they then sleep the night away waiting for a new day and a new chapter in this party's life.

Session 8 - October 11th, 2022 - Day 6

Title: A Giant Arachnid Fight

- The Order of the Orb has hurt Zonqa, one of the Majors of Verrona to the point where she had to bring in reinforcements.
- She then begins to bring in some of her Drow Foot Soldiers
- As more come the party begins to fear what Zonqa is capable of with her massive swings of strength and her tactics.
- She then realizes she is losing her life force faster than initially thought she begins to fight on the ceiling seemingly out of reach of the party.
- The party eventually brings her down as she then binds together half the party with a web cage ability keeping them out of the fight for a while.
- Wolfe begins losing health and dropping unconscious quickly as the party furiously brings him back to be the front line.
- She then slowly loses more and more health. She then continues to use her Thread Infusion, and with some rotten luck, most of the players get struck by the ability.
- Eventually, the party brings her down, bringing them back to the house they were in before, now fully furnished and clean. Alongside them is a great cocoon of webs.
- Unveiling the innards of the cocoon finds Bethany unharmed, she then awakens and presents the party and item she was able to obtain while being detained, a Ring of the Phantasmal Arachnid.

Session 7 - October 4th, 2022 - Day 6

Title: Newcomers

- The Order of the Orb are found laying on the ground traumatized from the previous experience.
- As the party begins to recoup they are met with the Clerics who healed them up as best they could but along with them were 2 new figures who were hired from Godvia to accompany them to help in Bethany's investigation.
- When they initially meet they are told to follow them to the bar to talk where everyone begins explaining who they are and what has happened till now.
- After the new team discusses what to do, they decide to go to Bethany's house to hear the new information the guards and investigator found.
- The investigator then reveals that the team has been using webs as they teleport and must be hiding in a nearby abandoned building, as they have not received news from other neighboring towns, and are then given a map with the possible buildings that they may be hiding in.
- Hearing this the party investigates the nearby bushes to find another big web.
- Honk then has Kelnora speak with Creep, the spider that she caught earlier, to see what other information they can find. Creep then tells the party that the ones in black outfits could use smaller webs but others have to have bigger webs.
- The party then begins slowly and sneakily investigating these houses and after a while, they find a house that is dark on the inside and has a guard.
- The party then begins to set up a way to sneak in with everyone hiding beside Honk ready to distract the guard and Kugrak ready to sneak in the window.
- Honk then knocks on the door and then does a dance the guard is then distracted as Kugrak gets in through the window, but then when Kugrak attempts to open the door where the guard was standing by. But the door creaks very loud getting the attention of the guard.
- Then when the guard attacks Honk with a poison dart, poisoning her, but then the party gets in a knock him out quickly.
- Once they realize that the building they were in was magical based they get seemingly teleported to a fully dark blocked room, with a spider web over the floor and with one of the Majors from Verrona showing that they have Bethany wrapped in a web cocoon.
- The party then fights her and after some time then she explains that enough is enough, and then the session ends.

Session 6 - September 27th, 2022 - Day 6

Title: Meeting with a Higher Power

- At the beginning of the day is investigating the Inn and discovers that the kidnappers are of Verrona and are using web teleportation to move around.
- The party then split to pack up at the hotel and the other picked up the new equipment and go back to Bethany's house to investigate further.
- When arriving they find that there is a set of lighter footprints and heavier footprints only exiting the house.
- Seeing this Wolfe suspects that their adventuring party friends, Whistle and Marble, have similar footprint types.
- Both Wolfe and Desparia meet back up with the party and then tell Whistle and Marble to relax and stay back on this one, after trying to deceive them, they reluctantly do it.
- They all go to Bethany's place to make it their home base as well as do some more investigating on the tracks. This then leads them to discover another giant spider web where Honk collects a small Black Widow and Loreli collects a small amount of a blue liquid.
- The party then discovers that Marble and Whistle are not to blame.
- Their next point is to visit the Library for some more information about their use of magic, which is illegal.
- They then decide to head toward the Town Hall. When they arrive they are told that more information has been discovered and is ready for them at their base.
- Next, they meet Rhino and Penguin and they see Rhino is alive just not breathing, this is when Desparia looks into Rhino's thoughts ... or so she thought.
- She is then met with a room of red blubbery-like walls, a throne of bones, and razor-sharp teeth with some moving tentacles behind it. Sitting on the throne is a maroon slender figure with no features other than a great big mouth.
- Desparia goes unconscious and begins to get greatly injured by this being by just being in its presence the party sees that she begins bleeding through the eyes.
- After being mocked as nothing but prey and playthings by this creature he begins to attempt to kill Desparia, as Loreli is healing her she then touches the eyes and slips to the same fate.
- With some quick thinking of Honk and Wolfe holding Penguin to the wall and throwing Earth Piercer into Rhino Desparia and Loreli reawaken and are fear-ridden.

Session 5 - September 20th, 2022 - Day 4 and 5

Title: Rampaging Rhino and Kidnappings

- As the Enraged Rhino became even more upset he mysteriously became into a large rhino who seemed to want Kyle and everyone else dead.
- The party and some nearby friends worked tirelessly to defeat and incapacitate Rhino, which they did successfully.
- Afterward, the town was scattered, but they brought them back to enjoy the party in the town that was taking place before the commotion.
- Loreli and Wolfe then run after Kyle who got a Third Degree Burn on the side of his arm up the chin from the devastation Rampaging Rhino gave him and returned him home.
- During this, kids came up and asked the group what they wanted to name themselves and they settled on the Order of the Orb.
- Bethany then got up in front of everyone and began to play beautifully but then one by one the strings on her Viol broke off having her run away in shame.
- With some helpful words from Desparia asking her to return once the party was over to give them the private show for her, her party, and close friends.
- After having some conversations with friends and talking with some acquaintances the party then waits for the return of Bethany, waiting hour after hour with her not showing up.
- Some of the party then investigate to find her home ransacked and nothing left behind but a medallion of a spider with a splash of red behind it.
- Going back to the hotel the party then discusses what this means and decides what they need to do. They will keep watch tonight and tomorrow retrieve their new armor and weapons and go and investigate her disappearance.
- As they sleep soundly, everyone on the upper floor of the Inn Loreli wakes up to discover that there is a Veronnian Dagger placed near the head of Hydrangea who fell asleep on watch.

Session 4 - September 13th, 2022 - Day 3 and 4

Title: Return to Party

- After climbing the canyon walls the party makes their way back to the town of Helmfield to find the streets of town empty.
- Looking around and using their senses they figure out that the town has gone into hiding for the chaotic wild magic was causing mayhem in the town and being inside was one way to stay safe.
- After going around and telling the town of their accomplishments, the mayor tells the party that they have been gone for multiple days and were scared that they may never return.
- The party then tells Godvia of the party and to have Bethany be a lead in the show and have her play for the entire town, afterwards the party scatters into their hotel rooms and sleeps for the night.
- In the morning the party meets up at the town hall to acquire their hefty sum of money as thanks for saving the town!
- Then they have their own individual tasks, requesting new weapons and armor, meeting up with some friends, and other things.
- Talking to Beverly some of the party acquired some new weapons and armor with her giving a heavy discount about saving her life and also providing her sum of the reward money.
- Loreli meets with Rhino in the Bar where she sees him still sad, she tells him that he only lost to some drug and nothing more. Penguin comes in a little later to assure him and keep him calm and they all drink.
- Later before the party Desparia and Honk nearly rob an innocent halfling thinking of him a gnome that is "holding" later leaving him with some money.
- At the same time, Loreli then goes along her way to the store to attempt to purchase some drugs, she then goes to the restaurant nearby and asks for the "salad extra green" of which she purchases 5oz mushrooms, 5oz weed, and a super steroid (the drug that Loreli told Rhino he lost too)
- Once the party starts, each party member begins to go and do what they please some making new relationships, some partaking in drugs along with friends.
- After Rhino is drunk and high he begins losing his exposure and begins to search for Kyle, no matter what the party attempts they could do nothing, not even Penguin. He then finds him and after a mysterious voice (Desparia Telepathy) tells him to eat the steroid Loreli gave him Rhino grows more enraged.

Session 3 - September 6th, 2022 - Day 3

Title: Foggy Mind Maze

- Arriving at the top of the canyon the party feels their first of many waves of wild magic.
- Then they slowly make their way down and with some help from the rope, they tied to the rock the party ended up at the bottom of the cave. Although with some collisions between the party took place throughout.
- Then the party slowly makes their way through the canyon while traversing the thick light blue fog that enshrouds the canyon.
- As they push forward they feel a dimensional hop of sorts and begin traversing the wild magic maze.
- Many wisps and pixies come in to hurt or aid the party, beginning with a lot of luck their luck begins to diminish as they reach back to where they started.
- The team then split up to try and discover the exit faster, but this may not have been the best decision.
- As they split half of the party does end up finding the exit faster but the other happens to get surrounded by these blue magical wisps that attempt to kill Loreli and Hydrangea.
- Hydrangea using her large battle axe is nearly unable to collide her weapon with the wisps, but with some heals from the two of them and some Words of Radiance they manage to escape the dangers of the dimensional hopping maze.
- Afterward taking a much-needed short rest, before discovering the source of the chaos. A blue wild magic orb casts light onto the battlefield.
- 5 magical bears emerge from the cave, but the party with some strong attacks and rolls manages to take the bears out and get the rewards.
- But they realize the wild magic blue orb was still going, learning that the 8 symbols laid amongst the surrounding area were the 8 symbols of magic, the party quickly send some magical energy into the symbols but then discovered that they did not harbor all schools.
- Discovering that the orb had all forms of magic locked away the party took damage as they received temporary energy and sent it into the sigils and the orb formed energy around it. The orb then rolled in front of the party's feet finally its power diminished.

Session 2 - September 2nd, 2022 - Day 2

Title: Wild Dates

- Coming back from the Helmfield Cave the party scattered to do their desired tasks.
- Wyrin goes around into different adventurers' rooms just to look around and figure out their names to get a party to take place, which Sunseer, the hotel owner, and the new guests, think is an amazing idea!
- Wolfe goes to Beverly to relax and talk after the biggest dungeon of each party member's life.
- After dressing up with roses nicely grown on Hydrangeas wing for Bethany a great conversation takes place, and needed questions were answered.
- After talking to a depressed Rhino, Lorelei finds and hits it off well with Penguin and they take it to the Hotel room.
- Next Bethany and Desparia meet up with Desparia having new nice clothes, an extravagant cloak, and a collection of roses for her.
- After talking and relaxing a cacophonous boom takes place not too far off the town and a wave of magic overcomes the town and players acting with different effects.
- Once the magical effects seem to dissipate the mayor tells everyone to go home and lock up and she will send scouts out to discover the root of all the chaos.
- The party members meet up at the hotel to discuss their day with Desparia bringing the surprising news.
- The party then decides to investigate the disturbance, after giving the money to the previous job they go around town purchasing what they need and preparing for the future, new armor, and new clothes.
- The party then departed to where the scouts believed the source of all the chaos originated, and when they arrived are hit with a wave of magical blue energy.

Session 1 - August 16th, 2022 - Day 2

Title: Adventures of Helmfield Cave

- Party awoke to Wolfe throwing rocks at the windows and apologizing for his actions the previous night.
- Party then went to walk to the library. Desparia learned about Athoria and Wolfe learned about Earth Piercer from Ramora.
- Hydrangea then went to Bethany and asked her for a date for drinks at the Thoughtful Baker Bar at 6 pm. Immediately afterward Desparia after a high Persuasion asked Bethany on a date as well for Live Music at the Town Square at 8 pm.
- After Beverly joined your party and was given some Torches and a Potion of Healing Godiva, the mayor of Helmfield, sent you to the Helmfield Cave.
- When arriving the party discovered the secret arm at the statue at the beginning of the cave and found the history of the Cave.
- The party then walked down the cave and found the Goblin Horde. Attempted to sneak up on them and attacked. Ended with a somewhat close fight.
- Then solving the puzzle of the 9-digit door made their way farther down into the Cave and found the endpoint. Was able to figure out the secret puzzle of the three chests, but when sadly trying to loot the body of the corpse and set off the Suffocation Rugs.
- They fought valiantly and had some of the party fall to the Rugs but they ended up beating the rugs with the last bit of life still held.
- After collecting all the treasures of the cave they immediately left back into town because some of the arty had some dates and possible dates to attend to.

Session 0 - August 9th, 2022 - Day 1

Title: The Beginning

- When meeting the party together, some of the party found that Wolfe was abducting Wyrin (Honk) although it may have been the opposite.
- When going in for drinks met Swan and got their drinks after a long day of walking.
- Wyrin's Message to Rhino is to irritate them succeed and ended up hiding and causing another group of kids to be at fault. This leads to Kyle being forced to challenge the Rhino in Arm-Wrestling. Then Wyrin cast Sleep on Rhino and Loreli cast Thaumaturgy to have Kyle win and cause thunderous applause!
- Desparia then unfortunately a little tipsy began attempting to flirt with Penguin, Rhino's friend. Unfortunately began speaking but threw up a little bit in her mouth causing her to walk away immediately.
- Then in the Library, they met the owner who continuously caused them to hush and freeze if causing too much noise. Then meeting Bethany de Bolbec the nice half-elf who told you of Ramora being available tomorrow, the one who has great ideas and knowledge of the past, and may be able to help with some questions of interesting items.
- In the Library found a job available for a missing person from a nearby cave.
- Afterward wanting to get some special ink and paper for some spell materials, Wyrin then disguised as a shorter version of Wolfe and had some patrons act a bit off. Eventually, some of the group helpings got to get the special ink and paper and hide almost perfectly.
- Then had some fun at the Casino, went to the hotel, and took a nice sleep!
