 - When she sees Athoria she asks to look closer to it and casts identify with a small stone. When she closes her eyes the stone can glow blue and her eyes match the color. She then tells you that this is not just a sword and she feels it's connected to a higher power. Then explains that someone in the nearby city of Grand, a city of engineering and knowledge has someone who will know what this weapon is.
 - If Wolfe is in the group then she will sense Earth Piercer and will ask to see it and casts identify with a small stone.
