

An Ominous Apple

Version 1.00 (November 2022)

Wondrous Item, uncommon

Just a regular apple, that looks really, really suspicious. Assumed poisoned or otherwise cursed at first glance, must pass a DC20 Insight or Arcana check (or through some sort of detecting magic) to learn that this apple has a charm put on it just to make people suspicious of it. It is completely ok to eat...or is it?
