Weapon (shortsword), unknown rarity

This weapon is more than what is seen on the surface. You can communicate with this being in your dreams, and this entity is in 2 of its ten total shards so its' communication and power are severely limited. You get a feeling collecting more shards than the power and abilities will increase.

When attacking with this weapon roll a D20 and on a hit, you do 1D6 Piercing damage.

Proficiency with a shortsword allows you to add your proficiency bonus to the attack roll for any attack you make with it.

Notes: Finesse, Light
