Weapon (trident), unknown rarity

This weapon was forged from the materials of the Forrest, the wood from the most robust tree, and the bones of the strongest animals. This weapon was handmade and no detail was left unchecked. You know that this weapon is only the beginning and that there is more to it, and it is yet to be finished.

Every time you hold this weapon, a message is written in a language that you do not understand but you feel as if this weapon is trying to guide you on your destined path!

When attacking with this weapon roll a D20 and on a hit you do 1D6 Piercing damage or when thrown you can do 2D4 Piercing Damage.

Proficiency with a trident allows you to add your proficiency bonus to the attack roll for any attack you make with it.

Notes: Thrown, Versatile
